REPORT NO.

1. Practically all the divisions which until recently were under the Sixth Army Command at Ljubljana and were concentrated along the Austrian and Italian frontiers have been transferred since the end of October 1948 to the Bulgarian frontier east of Nis.
2. There are at present very strong Yugoslav troop concentrations along the Hungarian and Rumanian frontiers because it is feared in responsible quarters that the Soviet concentrations near the Hungarian frontier may have been made in preparation for an attack on Yugoslavia.
